

Genealogical information from the Home of Kello Scroll

Sir David Home of Wedderburn, killed battle of Flodden, he left several sons, who from their warlike exploits, were styled the Spiers of Wedderburn.

1st Speir Sir Patrick Lord Polwarth married Jane, daughter of Earl Home, and was a leader along with Argyll and Cockrane of Ochiltree in the revolutionary wars

2nd Speir was ancestor of the Earl of Marchmont

3rd Speir was ancestor of the Earl of Dunbar

4th Speir was ancestor of the Blackadder and Kello families.

I. Sir George Home, married 1st daughter of Sir James Maxwell, 2nd daughter of Thomas Noble, by whom he had:

II. George Home of Kello, married daughter of David Pitcairn of Dreghorn.

- a. David Home of Kello (see III below)
- b. Elizabeth Home, married Patrick Crawford, Viscount Garnock, Earl of Crawford and Lyndsay, who was succeeded by her son George, named after his grandfather George Home of Kello.
- c. Jean Home was about to be married to the Duke of Hamilton – it did not take place. She was however married 1st to Capt. Joseph Pringle, son of Lord Newhall, 2nd to the Honourable General John Stewart son of the Earl of Moray. She got her father's extensive property adjudged from her brother David and nephew Peter Campbell [Home], in which was comprended 96 Merks land in the Fair Isle, 96 [Merks] in Quendale, 66 [Merks] in Hellwell, 88 [Merks] in Garth &c and Island of Moussay, holms called Colsay & all lying within the parochines of Dunrossness, Sandwick, Cunningsburgh & sick like &c and in like manner the hail parsonage and vickarage Tiends of said parochines also umboth Duty of Walls, Sandness, Foula and Papa and umboth Tiends thereto belonging. Infett.
- d. Janet Home, to whom the right under the adjudication was assigned by her sister Jean.

III. David Home of Kello, married Ann Campbell daughter of Major Campbell of Monktonhall, near relation of the Duke of Argyll. In consequence of a fatal duel with Belches of Invermay who was courting his sister-in-law Meg Campbell, he fled to France – Belches gave the challenge, and when dying spoke so favourably of Home's conduct in the affair that all cognizances were intimated as dropt by Belches family – however he only returned to England when he died. This unhappy circumstance his sister Jean took the advantage of under grounds of patrimony and pretext of debts due by him to her and her sister Janet. (Ann Campbell's mother was a daughter of Euan Macgregor by the Honorable Mary Gray daughter of the then Lord Gray.)

- a. Peter Campbell Home, died a General.
- b. David Home of Monktonhall died in Jamaica, married Ann Mitchell daughter of William Mitchell whose (the Mitchell's) family traditions state were then possessed of great estate in Shetland and that there was a Mausoleum or burial place built that was erected by a William Mitchell which is said to have cost £1000 – Pounds Scots most likely. Ann Mitchell's mother's name was Christian Brown daughter of Dr Charles Brown by Mary Deans daughter of James Deans of Mounthoullie. Dr Brown was son of Brown of Coalston the heiress of which is married to the Earl of Dalhousie.
 - i. David Home of Bluefields died in Jamaica married Lillas Graham daughter of John Graham of Mossknow
 - ii. Jean Home married to Thomas Buchan, died in Jamaica.
 1. David Home Buchan died in possession without having made up.
- c. Walter Home died in Jamaica
- d. Janet Home married to John Sanders of the Bank of Scotland (niece of Jean)
 - i. Ann Sanders dead
 - ii. Janet Sanders married to James Adie of Adie-field (eldest daughter of John S & Grand-Niece of Jean Home)
 1. John Adie great-grand nephew to Jean Home last Infeft. Legally cognosed.